Code of Conduct

Boréal Solutions inc. — FICTIONAL DOCUMENT | Version 2.0 | September 1, 2026

This document is entirely made up for developing and testing a RAG assistant. It is not a real policy or legal advice. Any resemblance to an existing company is coincidental.

COC-01 | Principles

Employees of Boréal Solutions inc. act with integrity, respect and transparency toward colleagues, clients and suppliers. The code also applies to freelancers who represent the company.

COC-02 | Gifts and invitations

An employee may accept a gift or invitation worth CA$100 or less, no more than twice a year from the same supplier. Above that, the gift must be refused or declared to the compliance department. Cash and gift cards are never accepted, whatever their value.

COC-03 | Conflicts of interest

Any actual or potential conflict of interest must be declared in writing to the manager within 10 business days of its discovery. Outside employment is permitted if it does not compete with the company and is declared.

COC-04 | Respect and harassment

All forms of harassment are prohibited. A complaint may be filed with Human Resources or through the ethics line. It is handled confidentially and a first response is given within 5 business days.

COC-05 | Ethics line

The ethics line is managed by an external provider and allows anonymous reporting at any time. No retaliation may be taken against a person who makes a report in good faith.

COC-06 | Social media

Only the communications team may speak on behalf of the company. Employees do not post any confidential information, any information about clients or any photos of the offices without authorization.

COC-07 | Sanctions

A breach of the code may lead to disciplinary measures up to and including dismissal, depending on its severity and recurrence.
